

SERVICE AND AWARDS

Mel Stout, RLA

- 1968, Melvin J. Stout selected Outstanding Graduating Senior in Landscape Architecture for 1968, Kansas State University.
- 1969, Mel Stout, ASLA received the American Society of Landscape Architects Certificate of Merit for Excellence in the Study of Landscape Architecture, Kansas State University.
- 1971, Mel Stout, ASLA, First Lieutenant, Honorable Discharge, U.S. Army, with tour of duty Republic of South Vietnam.
- 1972 Mel Stout, ASLA received the 1972 Landscape Architecture Faculty Award at the annual School of Natural Resources Honors Convocation, The University of Michigan.
- 1978 to 1998, Mel Stout, ASLA, Board Member, Friend of Marquam Nature Park, Portland, Oregon.
- 1980, Mel Stout, ASLA, received Certificate No. 185, from the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards.
- 1980 Letter of Appreciation to Mel Stout, ASLA, for his design and public involvement role in design and development of the Willamette River Greenway Program from Wallace A. Hibbard, Assistant Administrator, Willamette River Greenway Program, Oregon Parks and Recreation.
- 1982 to 2010, Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Founding Board Member, 40-Mile Loop Land Trust, Portland, Oregon.
- 1984 Volunteer Service Award to Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Portland, Oregon Parks and Recreation.
- 1985 Certificate of Merit from Oregon Chapter American Association of Nurserymen, design for 2828 Corbett Building Landscape, to David Evans and Associates, Inc., Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Project Manager.
- 1987 Letter of Recognition to Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Project Manager and Designer, Landscape Design Plans, Fort Richardson, For Wainwright, Fort Greeley, "The work on the initial landscape design plans was excellent." Alexander Johnston, III, COL, EN, Department of the Army, Headquarters, 6th Infantry Division, (Light).
- 1988 Oregon Chapter American Society of Landscape Architects, Merit Award, 40-Mile Loop Master Plan, Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Project Manager.
- 1989 Letter of Appreciation to Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, from Mike Lindberg, Commissioner, City of Portland, for participation as Task Force Member, Memorials Evaluation, Tom McCall Park, Portland, Oregon.

- 1996 National Honor Award, American Society of Landscape Architects for 40-Mile Loop Master Plan, Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Project Manager.
- 1998 Volunteer Service Award to Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, from Portland Parks and Recreation, Portland, Oregon.
- 1998 to 2008, Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, Advisory Board Member, Department of Landscape Architecture/Regional and Community Planning, Kansas State University.
- 2000 Letter of Appreciation from Edward B. Kaye, Lewis & Clark 2005, Inc. on behalf of Board of Directors to Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA, for “outstanding work to assess the 13 Lewis & Clark landing sites in our region...”
- 2000 Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA named Vice President, David Evans and Associates, Inc. (David Evans and Associates, Inc. (DEA) is a 900 person firm with 24 Vice Presidents. Mel’s career at DEA began in 1982 as group leader (Discipline Leader), of Landscape Architecture for the Portland Office. The group grew and was sustained at a staff level of ten through the 1990’s to present. Mel also held the title of Discipline Director of Landscape Architecture for the firm. The firm has over 50 Landscape Architects among 6 of the Firm’s 20 offices).
- 2001-2002 Participating Member by invitation on the Downtown Portland Nordstrom Customer Advisory Board.
- 2002 ASLA Oregon Merit Award, Landscape Planning and Analysis, for Hells Canyon Complex Aesthetic Resource Inventory, Team member for Transmission Line Analysis.
- 2002 ASLA Oregon Merit Award, Landscape Planning and Analysis, for Rediscovery of the Rivers; Lewis & Clark Discovery Greenway Master Plan, Project Manager and Project Designer.
- 2003 One of three parks and recreation design leaders selected along with political and administrative leaders from the Portland Metropolitan Area by David Bragdon, President of the METRO Council, to accompany him to Minneapolis St. Paul to tour Twin Cities parks and meet local political and administrative people to gain vision for the Metro Parks and Greenspaces Program.
- 2003 DEA under the direction of client manager, Mel Stout, RLA, ASLA ranked No. 1 among seven consultants selected for the Oregon Department of Transportation Statewide Flexible Service Contract for Landscape Architectural Services.
- 2004 Assembled team of landscape architecture consultants that provided trail, overlook, boardwalk, trail head, erosion control, and re-vegetation design services for the Fort-to-the-Sea Trail located in the Lewis and Clark National Historical Park, Oregon and Washington.
- 2004 to 2012 Appointed and Commissioned as a member of the Oregon State Landscape Architect Board for a term of four years by Governor Theodore R. Kulongoski, and an additional four years by Governor John A. Kitzhaber, MD.